

Onaje Lewis

Owner and CEO, Lewis Legacy Co.

Executive and Asset Protection

Licensed Bond & Insured

Onaje Lewis is the Owner, CEO, and Operations Manager of Lewis Legacy Co., a company he proudly founded in 2017. A native of Atlanta, Georgia, Mr. Lewis is an alumnus of Frederick Douglass High School and Barber-Scotia College. During his academic tenure, he was recognized as a UNCF Evening of Stars recipient.

Mr. Lewis has completed extensive professional training in various areas, including School Safety and Fire Protection, Tactical Driving, Guard Patrol and Site Protection, Executive and Asset Protection, Active Shooter Response, Loss Prevention, Counter Surveillance and Intelligence, and Plain Clothes Operations.

With over 20 years of experience, Mr. Lewis has led security teams at high-profile events such as club venues, award shows, grand openings, concerts, black-tie engagements, and red-carpet events. He has also served as a bodyguard for high-profile celebrities, A-listers, athletes, executives, music artists, community activists, and exclusive church personnel.

Mr. Lewis personally works with each client to build and maintain strong, informative, and responsive relationships, ensuring that Lewis Legacy Co. delivers unmatched service. His training and experience have enabled him to develop security plans and protection strategies that have been implemented across the United States and abroad. His exposure to diverse cultures, environments, customs, and political and economic challenges has enhanced his expertise in public relations and security operations.

Known for his unwavering professionalism and integrity, Mr. Lewis consistently strives to foster a cohesive atmosphere within his company. He has developed security policies, protocols, and procedures that ensure excellence company-wide.

From humble beginnings and personal growth through challenges in his youth, Mr. Lewis has dedicated himself to creating opportunities for others. His "Second Chance Initiative" provides convicted felons with pathways to reintegrate into society as active, respected citizens. This mission is rooted in his belief that everyone deserves the chance to rebuild and contribute positively to their families and communities.

The vision of Lewis Legacy Co. is to provide affordable and effective security solutions for growing businesses, rising entrepreneurs, and underserved communities. Mr. Lewis remains committed to this goal of ensuring safety and protection for those in need, exemplifying leadership and servitude in every aspect of his work.

"True strength is found in calm leadership, courageous action, and a heart for service - this is how legacies are built."

"Dedicated to providing Security & Asset Protection for those in need...because no one should have to budget their safety."